

News

Good news in Uganda
page 5

Price: $1⁰⁰ incl GST

wwnews@nwcourier.com.au

Number 1183

Wee Waa, TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 2016

CHAPLAIN KATE: Wee Waa High School chaplain Kate Battistuzzi, right, with students Ashleigh Ross, Alana Bennett Clancy and Claire Young. Ms Battistuzzi will be a familiar figure around Wee Waa's state schools this year. Previously she worked in both Wee Waa and Narrabri but this is his first year exclusively in Wee Waa. Originally from Tenterfield, Ms Battistuzzi lives in Wee Waa and teaches special religious education. She teaches one day a week at the high school (Years 7 and 8), spends a day studying at home and a day at the Wee Waa Public School. She also runs a junior youth group (for 8-12 year-olds) every Friday night during school terms at the Wee Waa Anglican Church hall.