

LEFT: Community Volunteer of the Year Sharon Hibbens with Mayor Conrad Bolton at last week's ceremony, above, Young Volunteer of the Year Lilly Cruckshank with her dad Rick at Wee Waa High School yesterday.

Wee Waa cleans up in volunteer awards

Narrabri Shire volunteers of the year named

Two Wee Waa volunteers have been honoured in the Volunteer of the Year awards announced last week.

Community Volunteer of the Year Sharon Hibbens plays a prominent role in the community across a number of organisations.

Mrs Hibbens is a volunteer for Landcare, and is a valued supporter of the rural community, offering her

Volunteer of the Year.

Young Volunteer of the Year Wee Waa High School captain Lilly Cruckshank has long been engaged at many levels in supporting and organising events, mentoring young people and undertaking many voluntary roles at her school and Pony Camp.

Lilly's catalogue of community service is long.